Trend / Points of Interest (this field expands)

Over all both persons and property crime has decreased this past year. Part of this was the focus on prolific offenders with in the community by the members.

Though property crime is trending down, ATV's still appear to be the main target.

The members participated in several community events, which included several days of skating with the local elementary kids, and providing tour of the detachment.

The RCMP Veterans and the Evansburg Detachment teamed up with Parkland Enforcement services and put together a 800 dollar food hamper for a family and raised over 1k for the family.
