

ATTACHMENT 1: PREFERRED OPTIONS TO ADDRESS VANDALISM AT KAPASIWIN TRANSFER STATION

#	Option	Cost Impacts	Advantages	Disadvantages	Risks
A1	No Longer Receive Metals and Electronics at the Kapasiwin Transfer Station	net 0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Greater probability of successfully eliminating the incentive for vandalism. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Impacts service delivery. Customers travel longer distance. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • May increase acts of vandalism at other rural Parkland County transfer stations.
A2	Remove Metals at the End of the Operational Day	$44,000 increase in base operations budget.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Greater probability of successfully eliminating the incentive for vandalism. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased cost without change in direct public service. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Electronics may still potentially attract vandals to site. • -Risk of contracted resources not being available for increased frequency of service.
A3	Private Security Company on Site After Hours	$230,000 increase in base operations budget.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High probability of successfully eliminating the vandalism. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased cost without change in direct public service. • Parkland County Enforcement Services do not have resources to increase presence. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Safety risk for private security guard. Risk of altercations between security guard and vandals.