ARHCA: Fuel Prices in Construction

Surging fuel prices are a double-edged sword for Alberta. Good for the province, sharp and painful for consumers and businesses. Rural municipalities are large and important clients and partners of civil construction contractors. With increased labour, equipment and material input costs, ARHCA member companies have seen margins collapse yet again and the fuel cost increases since the Russian invasion are a risk beyond their capacity to manage. Many contractors are seeking relief from municipal owners.

For force account work, the ARHCA today has issued an addendum to the 2022 Rental Rate Guide for a cost recovery fuel surcharge. Read more.

RCMP's Role in Community Safety and Well-Being Webinar

The RMA, ABmunis, and the RCMP recently hosted a webinar to share information about the RCMP's new Community Safety and Well-Being Branch. This branch works towards proactively reducing crime and victimization by addressing the contributing root causes in communities served by the RCMP. If you missed the webinar, you can view the recording online.

RhPAP: 2022 Rural Community Conference is Coming Soon

Rural Health Professions Action Plan (RhPAP) is launching registration for the 2022 RhPAP Health Provider Attraction and Retention (A&R) Conference. Taking place October 4 - 6, 2022 in Drayton Valley at the community's Clean Energy Technology Centre (CETC), the conference will feature three days of learning, sharing, and reconnection. The theme for the conference will be "Put On Your Perspectives: Looking Through the Rural Lens". The conference will provide an exceptional opportunity for those interested or involved in rural attraction and retention to learn from each other and to share best practices.
