ANNOUNCEMENTS

RhPAP: 2022 Rural Community Conference is Coming Soon

Rural Health Professions Action Plan (RhPAP) is launching registration for the 2022 RhPAP Health Provider Attraction and Retention (A&R) Conference. Taking place October 4 - 6, 2022 in Drayton Valley at the community's Clean Energy Technology Centre (CETC), the conference will feature three days of learning, sharing, and reconnection. The theme for the conference will be "Put On Your Perspectacles: Looking Through the Rural Lens". The conference will provide an exceptional opportunity for those interested or involved in rural attraction and retention to learn from each other and to share best practices. Save $50 when you register by June 30, 2022!

Moisture Situation Update -
June 22, 2022

- Community Climate Resilience Self-Assessment Tool. As part of the Climate Resilience Capacity Building Program, the Action Centre has just published a new tool to help you gauge your community's general readiness for the risks of climate change. Use it to identify gaps in your competencies and to identify supports and funding streams that can address those gaps. See where your community stands in terms of its climate resilience literacy, planning, collaboration, and more. Try the self-assessment!
- Webinar: See the Tool in Action. Join the Action Centre's Ronak Patel and Patricia MacQuarrie, General Manager of Community Development for the City of Camrose, on Thursday, July 7 at 10:30 am to review the Community Climate Resilience Self-Assessment Tool. Together, they will do a live demonstration, showing you how it can highlight existing strengths and point toward areas of growth. Register for free webinar here!
