3. Repeal, Enactment, Expiration, and Transition Procedures

- a. No provisions of any other Bylaw with respect to districting, development control, and land use classification shall hereafter apply to any of the lands identified in Bylaw 2016-20.

- b. The provisions of this Direct Control District come into effect immediately following the enactment of Bylaw 2016-20 (Effective Date).
- c. This Direct Control District shall be repealed 24 months after the following day of this Bylaw 2016-20 coming into effect.
- d. Subject only to the provisions in the Municipal Government Act respecting legal non-conforming Uses and notwithstanding the effect it may have on rights, vested or otherwise, the provisions of this Direct Control District govern from the Effective Date until the date identified in 9.8.3(c). In particular, no application for a Development Permit shall be evaluated under the provisions of the previous Land Use District after the Effective Date, even if the application was received before the Effective Date.
- e. Any uses allowed within the Land Use Bylaw not listed within a Land Use District, but identified as an allowed use in certain or all Districts, shall not apply to this Direct Control District.

4. Uses

- a. In accordance with Subsection (5) and in consideration of the purpose of the Bylaw, Council shall determine the land uses that may be allowed; and impose additional standards and conditions it considers appropriate to regulate that use.

5. Determination of Use and Development Regulations

- a. Notwithstanding Subsection (4), in consideration of any land use, Council shall not authorize any Development, as defined, until such time that the lands are deemed to be suitable for the purpose for which the lands are intended in relation to:
  - i. Site grading;
  - ii. Site drainage;
  - iii. Site soil conditions;
  - iv. Accepted provision and performance of storm water management systems that meet the requirements of the approved storm water management plan specific to this area; and
  - v. Any other site conditions deemed to be applicable.
- b. Council shall refer to the CR – Country Residential land use district or any part of the Land Use Bylaw related to general or use-specific development regulations, to determine land use regulations that may be applied to the prospective direct control development permit.

2. Repeal, Enactment, Expiration, and Transition Procedures

- a) No provisions of any other Bylaw with respect to districting, development control, and land use classification shall hereafter apply to any of the lands identified within the area of application in this Bylaw.
- b) This Bylaw shall come into force and take effect on the day of third reading and signing thereof (Effective Date).
- c) This Bylaw shall be repealed 24 months after the following day of this Bylaw coming into effect.
- d) Upon repeal of this Bylaw the redistricting of approximately 12.97 ha (32.05 ac) of all lands within Plan 0820032 shall revert back to CR - County Residential District;
- e) Should any provision of this bylaw be deemed invalid then such provision will be severed from this bylaw and such severance will not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the bylaw, except to the extent necessary to give effect to such severance.
