Dancing with Our Stars: Fright Night

Act One

Six Parkland-area Stars will spend four days learning a Halloween-themed ballroom dance routine with a professional partner, then perform it live at Horizon Stage. They will cha cha, waltz, and swing dance to some of your favourite Halloween songs while competing for your vote. Add in some Fright Night costumes, video highlights, and a panel of fun local judges, and you have a show that you have to see to believe. You will laugh, cry, and laugh some more and the best part is YOU, the audience, will vote to determine takes home the coveted Mirrorball Trophy. In addition, each Star will be competing for prize money that will be donated to a local charity of their choice. Concession, bar sales, and any other money raised, will be donated as well, so everyone wins!

It's the same show both nights - but will the winner be the same? YOU DECIDE!

Celebrity Judges

They provide fun feedback and help the audience choose the winner.

Friday: Laura Dear - Main Street Law

Rod Shaigec - Mayor, Parkland County

Shelby Gartner - Myshak Group of Companies

Saturday: Brandi Wurtz - Theatre Manager

Elizabeth Marsh - Actress and Business Owner

William Choy - Mayor, Stony Plain

Act Two

While your votes are being tallied, the professional dancers, members of the United States National Formation Championship company in both Latin American and Standard ballroom dancing, will perform excerpts from their award-winning showcase Ballroom Fever. Enjoy breath-taking lifts, beautiful costumes, enchanting theatrical story lines and a variety of dances that will captivate your heart.

Act Three

If that's not enough, after the Mirrorball Trophy is awarded, you're invited to stick
