Canada 150 Community Leaders

Bringing the voice of municipalities to Canada 150

On Canada's 150th anniversary of Confederation let's celebrate cities and communities — the places we call home — which make our country great.

From September to December 2016, municipal councils will identify a representative in their city or community to form part of an official network of Canada 150 Community Leaders. This network of Community Leaders will ensure the voices of municipalities across Canada are showcased as part of Canada150.

Community Leaders will be the community voice of Canada 150 at local events, and when possible, they will share images and stories about their communities to create an insightful mosaic of our nation. These leaders will be a touch point to share information about Canada150.
